

House Resolution No. 1050

Whereas, it is with genuine respect and true pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have admirably dedicated their time and energy to the pursuit of excellence while holding elective office; and

Whereas, James R. Goggin has developed and maintained an exemplary reputation as the Iron County Clerk, a governmental position of utmost responsibility from which he will step down on March 31, 2004, after service which spanned an impressive period of seventeen years and three months; and

Whereas, County Clerk James Goggin brought to his leadership labors a wealth of experience and knowledge which he had garnered from earlier employment as an Assistant Purchasing Agent and Warehouseman from 1967 to 1978 at Asarco, Incorporated, in Glover and as an Inventory Control Clerk from 1978 to 1986 with Amax, Incorporated, in Boss; and

Whereas, a Deacon at First Baptist Church of Ironton, James Goggin has received well-deserved praise and accolades for his activities down through the years with Kiwanis Club, Arcadia Valley Lions Club, Arcadia Valley Elks, and Arcadia Valley Jaycees; and

Whereas, James Goggin has distinguished himself as a family man who is the beloved husband of Virginia Goggin; father of Waide Goggin; father-in-law of Debbie Goggin; and grandfather of Joseph, Michael, and Ruby; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should recognize such stellar citizens as James Goggin at momentous times in life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long career and numerous achievements associated with the work of James Goggin as Iron County Clerk and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes as he partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally linked to the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to James R. Goggin of Arcadia, Missouri.
