

Whereas, it is always a pleasure for the members of the Missouri House of Representatives to recognize an outstanding Show-Me State couple who have ceaselessly embraced the promises made to one another so many, many years ago; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Felty, treasured residents of Millersville, Missouri, commemorated the grand and joyous occasion of their Sixty-fifth Wedding Anniversary with a reception hosted by their loved ones on December 7, 2003, in the fellowship hall at Fairview United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, it seems as if Quentin and Virginia (Summers) Felty have been together forever since that blissful day on December 21, 1938, when they began their new life together by exchanging their sacred nuptial vows during a beautiful wedding ceremony performed by the Reverend Fulbright and witnessed by Edwin and Thelma Felty in Marble Hill; and

Whereas, in the many years since that heavenly day, Quentin and Virginia Felty have had the pleasure of watching their family grow to include their children and their spouses, Carol and Jim Sawyer of Springfield, Illinois, Virgil and Loudean Felty of Millersville, and Sandra and Don Crader of Marble Hill; their grandchildren and their spouses, Colin and Debbie Fjerstad of Wildwood, Sherri Berry of Ballwin, the Reverend Randy and Paula Sawyer of Fredericktown, Tom and Kim Sawyer of Marble Hill, and Dean and Chris Sawyer of Whitewater; and their great-grandchildren; Ryan, Jessy, and Justin Sawyer, Cassidy and Shelby Sawyer, Amber and Quentin Sawyer, Kellie, Sarah, and Rachel Berry, and Kurtis and Amy Fjerstad; and

Whereas, Quentin and Virginia Felty are a remarkable couple who undoubtedly look to the future with optimism as a truly amazing couple whose love will last an eternity:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Quentin and Virginia Felty at this most significant milestone in their married life and in wishing them only the best as they continue their journey together forever walking hand-in-hand along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Felty, as a measure of our tremendous esteem for them.
