

House Resolution No. 1045

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents whose entrepreneurial spirit and business achievements have garnered them well-deserved honors and accolades from their peers and colleagues; and

Whereas, Jack Lonsinger and his beloved wife, Deborah Lonsinger, are the co-owners of Liberty Carbon Service, Incorporated, of Excelsior Springs, Missouri; and

Whereas, Liberty Carbon Service recently earned recognition from the Associated Industries of Missouri which selected the company for its 2004 Missouri Industry of the Year Award - Small Classification; and

Whereas, under the skilled leadership of president Jack Lonsinger, Liberty Carbon Service supports small businesses with environmental and technical issues which often play a very important role with success in the world of business; and

Whereas, Jack Lonsinger also ensures the success of businesses in his chosen field of endeavor through his service on the Associated Industries of Missouri Executive Committee and Board of Directors; Kansas State Curriculum Committee; Kansas State Region 7 and Region 8 Hazardous Substance Research Committee; Crop Protection Chemical Association Environmental Committee; Small Business Compliance Advisory Committee, which he served as Chairman; Missouri Clean Air Act Committee, and National Federation of Independent Business; and

Whereas, Jack and Deborah Lonsinger's daughter, Leslie Jenkins, admirably contributes her skills and knowledge to the family enterprise through her outstanding efforts as Office Manager at Liberty Carbon Services:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar record of accomplishment compiled thus far in the history of Liberty Carbon Service and to convey to its owners, Jack and Deborah Lonsinger, this legislative body's heartiest congratulations for their company's receipt of an Associated Industries of Missouri 2004 Industry of the Year Award - Small Classification; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Liberty Carbon Service, Incorporated, of Excelsior Springs, Missouri.
