

House Resolution No. 1508

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State high school athletic programs which admirably demonstrate the true benefits of sportsmanship, teamwork, training, determination, and drive; and

Whereas, the 2003-2004 Stockton High School girls basketball team completed the season with a successful trip to the Hearnes Center on the University of Missouri-Columbia campus where the players took First Place in Class 3 Missouri State High School Activities Association sanctioned action; and

Whereas, during the Lady Tiger's third capture of First Place in state championship basketball events, the players ended the season on Friday, March 19, 2004, with a 30-1 season record and a 56-44 victory over challenger Saint Louis Metro to take home the trophy; and

Whereas, 2004 brought to the Lady Tiger's record books their Sixth consecutive undefeated Mid-Lakes Conference Championship; and

Whereas, the 2003-2004 Stockton High School girls basketball team was composed of such impressive athletes as Kiana Bock, Jessica Stanley, Chelsea Kenney, Kalena Kenney, Kyla Burns, Mallory Terhune, Hollie Scrivner, Becky Budd, Whitney Cramer, Pam Hickman, Ashley Collins, Rachel Belcher, Blair Chism, and Katie Shellhorn; and

Whereas, the Lady Tiger's were admirably trained by Head Coach Tony Armstrong and Assistant Coach Kenny Shipps; and

Whereas, the Stockton High School girls basketball Tigers made it to the top spot in Class 3 basketball by overcoming Pembroke Hill in Sectionals, Smithville in the Quarterfinals round, and California in the Semifinals:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar competitive season enjoyed by the 2003-2004 Stockton High School girls basketball team and to convey to all of those involved this legislative body's heartiest congratulations for taking First Place in Class 3 state competition and our best wishes for continued personal, academic, and athletic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of the 2003-2004 Stockton High School Lady Tigers basketball team.
