Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events which are experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed with long and productive lives; and

Whereas, Eula Larabee of Clearmont, Missouri, has attained her Eightieth Birthday, a milestone in life which she celebrated with a festive card shower generated by her many family members and friends; and

Whereas, born on April 8, 1924, Eula Larabee enjoyed a childhood filled with numerous educational and rewarding experiences; and

Whereas, in addition to being born during the Roaring Twenties, Eula Larabee grew up during the Great Depression, reached adulthood during World War II, and took her place as a mature member of society during the ensuing decades; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Eula Larabee enjoys a life which encompassed most of the twentieth century with its first flights by heavier-than-air craft, worldwide turmoil associated with World War I and World War II, rise of the automobile as America's preferred mode of travel, demise of the Soviet Union as the Cold War drew to a close, and shift from a primarily agricultural economy to one dependent upon industry and then upon the service and information sectors; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper for the Missouri House of Representatives to pause to commemorate momentous events in the lives of such stellar citizens as Eula Larabee:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the arrival of the Eightieth Birthday of Eula Larabee and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes for many more celebratory events to come; and
