

House Resolution No. 1881

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives have tremendous esteem for Show-Me State volunteers whose contributions to their church and community provide a major source of the time and energy necessary for the successful completion of service-oriented goals; and

Whereas, Phyllis Strobel of Kearney, Missouri, is to be commended for her dedicated services as a volunteer with the First Baptist Church and her community; and

Whereas, volunteers in local churches, communities, and neighborhoods follow in the great traditions of service to state and nation upon which our society depends to effect positive change; and

Whereas, the spirit of volunteerism is universally recognized as an expression of unselfish compassion for those less fortunate than ourselves; and

Whereas, many times volunteers and the important labors which they perform go unacknowledged and without the heartfelt expression of appreciation which they deserve; and

Whereas, the volunteers at the First Baptist Church are a vital link in the provision of services which bring so much to both the Church and community as a whole; and

Whereas, the owner of FormTech, Phyllis Strobel is a member of the Kearney Chamber of Commerce and loves working with flowers; and

Whereas, God has truly blessed Phyllis Strobel with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, Gregory Strobel; three children, Corey Hughes, Shawn Hughes, and Gregory Strobel; and the entire First Baptist Church congregation; and

Whereas, this legislative body sincerely believes that the volunteers at the First Baptist Church are deserving of public acclaim and accolades:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to commend Phyllis Strobel and her fellow volunteers at the First Baptist Church and to convey to them our most solemn belief that their wonderful acts of service and kindness should not go unnoticed; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Phyllis Strobel, as a measure of our esteem for her.
