

House Resolution No. 1801

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Laura Glasbrenner of Raytown, Missouri, is one of five recipients of the Missouri Women Legislators $500 Scholarships; and

Whereas, Laura Glasbrenner is an exemplary student at Archbishop O'Hara High School where she excels in her studies, is on the Honor Roll, and participates in a wide variety of extracurricular activities that include the National Forensics League, the Student Council, and the National Honor Society, which she serves as Secretary; and

Whereas, Vice President of her senior class, Laura Glasbrenner has earned the Elk Teen of the Month award, the AAUW Science Award, and the 2003 Theology Student of the Year award; and

Whereas, an active member of St. Regis Church, Laura Glasbrenner looks forward to attending Truman State University following her graduation from high school; and

Whereas, Laura Glasbrenner has achieved all of this and more with the support and encouragement of her proud parents, Ken and Mary Lou Glasbrenner; and

Whereas, Laura Glasbrenner will be recognized during the legislature's annual Take Your Daughter to Work Day luncheon to be held April 20, 2004, at the Missouri Supreme Court Building:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Laura Glasbrenner at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Women Legislators of Missouri scholarship winner, Laura Glasbrenner.

Offered by _____ Representative Mike Sager
District No. 48

I, Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 1801, adopted April 19, 2004.

Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker