

House Resolution No. 2619

Whereas, upon occasion the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding individual whose achievements have earned him the trust, admiration, and respect of many; and

Whereas, Richard Oliver of O'Fallon, Missouri, has been chosen as a recipient of the DOVE (Director's Outstanding Volunteer Extraordinaire) Award, a most impressive accolade which was bestowed upon him by the O'Fallon Chamber of Commerce during its awards luncheon on April 27, 2004; and

Whereas, Richard Oliver joined the O'Fallon Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors in 1997, since which time he has distinguished himself by serving as Treasurer and by taking part in the Chamber's Ambassadors Committee; and

Whereas, a Financial Service Advisor for Prudential Financial, Richard Oliver spent most of his adult life in banking as a loan officer until he switched careers to become a financial service advisor in 1996; and

Whereas, Richard Oliver also sits on the St. Charles Community Assistance Board helping St. Charles agencies with financial assistance for the homeless and the indigent; and

Whereas, Richard Oliver derives a tremendous amount of spiritual fulfillment through his affiliation with Sunrise United Methodist Church and through his service as treasurer for the Missouri Conference of United Methodist Men; and

Whereas, Richard Oliver is also known, admired, and respected for serving his country as a member of the United States Navy:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our hearty congratulations and best wishes to Richard Oliver upon his selection to receive the DOVE Award; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Richard Oliver, as a measure of our esteem for him.
