

House Resolution No. 2900

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State educators who dedicate an untold amount of time and energy to ensuring that their young charges prepare for the future in learning environments which are as productive, supportive, and diverse as possible; and

Whereas, Jennifer Phillips has attained considerable distinction as the 2004 Blue Springs Teacher of the Year; and

Whereas, a first grade teacher at Cordill-Mason Elementary School, Jennifer Phillips spent the first five years of her nine-year-long sojourn in the classroom as a fourth and fifth grade instructor who made the transition to younger students in order to enhance their academic foundations in reading and writing; and

Whereas, in keeping with her newly acquired status as Teacher of the Year, Jennifer Phillips has always enjoyed an exceptional reputation with her professional colleagues, students, and administrators not only at Cordill-Mason Elementary School, but also throughout the entire Blue Springs R-IV School District; and

Whereas, Blue Springs schools educate more than thirteen thousand students in fourteen elementary, four middle, and three high school facilities through the skills, knowledge, experience, and dedication of more than nine hundred certificated staff, for whom Jennifer Phillips proudly stands as an exemplary model to emulate:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Jennifer Phillips as Blue Springs Teacher of the Year and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jennifer Phillips of the Blue Springs R-IV School District.
