

House Resolution No. 2891

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional skill as a leader of his peers; and

Whereas, Derek Loganbill of Florence, Missouri, recently received top honors for excellence in competition during the 2004 International DECA Career Development Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee; and

Whereas, one of seventeen high school students to receive international recognition, Derek Loganbill put forth a tremendous degree of effort while competing with sixteen thousand of the best and brightest high school marketing students from across the United States and Canada; and

Whereas, DECA's internationally recognized program of competitive events uses interviews, tests, role-plays, and written project reports to evaluate marketing and management skills identified by the national business community as essential for success in the business world of today; and

Whereas, an outstanding student at Tipton High School in Tipton where he has been named to the Honor Roll, Derek Loganbill received Top 10 honors in International DECA Competition in the Business & Financial Services Research Event; and

Whereas, Derek Loganbill holds local, state, and national DECA membership and takes pride in the enviable list of achievement he has attained at Tipton High School as the Treasurer of his class, MYF President, and member of the Future Farmers of America, Renaissance, and the National Honor Society; and

Whereas, Derek Loganbill has achieved his every ambition with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud and loving parents, Mark and Sara Loganbill; and his seven siblings, Amanda, Jonathan, Callie, Katherine, Marybeth, Drew, and Christina:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Derek Loganbill at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Derek Loganbill as he is honored at the Missouri Governor's Mansion in Jefferson City on May 14, 2004.
