

House Resolution No. 2905

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional skill as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Taban Salem of Wentzville, Missouri, recently received top honors for excellence in competition during the 2004 International DECA Career Development Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee; and

Whereas, one of seventeen high school students to receive international recognition, Taban Salem put forth a tremendous degree of effort while competing with sixteen thousand of the best and brightest high school marketing students from across the United States and Canada; and

Whereas, DECA's internationally recognized program of competitive events uses interviews, tests, role-plays, and written project reports to evaluate marketing and management skills identified by the national business community as essential for success in the business world of today; and

Whereas, an outstanding student at Wentzville Timberland High School in Wentzville where she has been named a DECA Third Place state winner in the Marketing Management Series Event, Taban Salem received Top 10 honors in International DECA Competition in the Marketing Management Series Event; and

Whereas, Taban Salem holds local, state, and national DECA membership and takes pride in the enviable list of achievement she has attained at Wentzville Timberland High School as President of the DECA Chapter and member of the National Honor Society and the Speech Team; and

Whereas, Taban Salem has achieved her every ambition with the love, support, and encouragement she has continually received from her proud and loving mother, Valerie O'Bannon; and her sibling, Shahob:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Taban Salem at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Taban Salem as she is honored at the Missouri Governor's Mansion in Jefferson City on May 14, 2004.
