

House Resolution No. 2970

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have dedicated their time and energy to support roles ensuring that today's students are provided learning environments which are challenging and rewarding in preparation for their future roles as societal leaders; and

Whereas, Lori Marble has attained considerable distinction as Public Information/Events Coordinator at Crowder College in Neosho; and

Whereas, Lori Marble will enhance her already impressive record of accomplishments when she receives the Crowder College 2004 Professional Staff Employee of the Year Award from the Anderson Area Chamber of Commerce at an awards luncheon on Friday, May 14, 2004, at Crowder College; and

Whereas, hired as Public Information Director in 1987, Lori Marble subsequently earned a Master's degree in museum studies and took on the added responsibilities as Director of the Longwell Museum; and

Whereas, a few years ago Lori Marble again added to her repertoire of duties by accepting the Events Coordinator job which entails the scheduling of college facilities for internal and community groups; and

Whereas, Lori Marble is Crowder College's representative with the media and public, in which capacity she handles all marketing needs from promotional planning to classified advertising; and

Whereas, Crowder College has won numerous awards for print and video advertisements thanks in large measure to the excellent work of Lori Marble, who is the recipient of a Communicator of the Year award from the National Council on Marketing and Public Relations:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Lori Marble as the Crowder College 2004 Professional Staff Employee of the Year by the Anderson Chamber of Commerce and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Lori Marble, beloved wife of Alan Marble.
