

House Resolution No. 2971

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have dedicated their time and energy to helping ensure that today's students are provided learning environments which are challenging and rewarding in preparation for their future roles as societal leaders; and

Whereas, Kelli Wilson has attained considerable distinction as a third grade teacher at Neosho Christian Schools; and

Whereas, Kelli Wilson will enhance her already impressive record of accomplishments when she receives the Private School 2004 Gold Star Teacher of the Year Award from the Neosho Area Chamber of Commerce Education Committee at a reception on Friday, May 14, 2004, at Neosho Christian Schools; and

Whereas, universally praised as a highly motivated, energetic teacher, Kelli Wilson received nomination letters from parents and colleagues in support of her selection as Gold Star Teacher of the Year; and

Whereas, Kelli Wilson is known for dedication and enthusiasm which lead her to spend extra hours in her classroom preparing special lessons for students who need more challenging materials or who need remedial work; and

Whereas, Kelli Wilson is particularly effective at instilling in her students a love of learning that motivates them to do their very best; and

Whereas, one important goal for which Kelli Wilson strives in her teaching is for all children to leave her classroom not only strong in their studies, but also having first-hand knowledge of respect, thankfulness, and love for each other; and

Whereas, the Neosho Area Chamber of Commerce Education Committee has long recognized the great contributions good teachers make in the lives of youth and in the fostering of future leaders in the community, state, and nation:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Kelli Wilson as the Private School 2004 Gold Star Teacher of the Year by the Neosho Chamber of Commerce and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Kelli Wilson of Neosho Christian Schools.
