

House Resolution No. 3078

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has demonstrated exceptional skill as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Wendy Goldstein of Chesterfield, Missouri, recently received top honors for excellence in competition during the 2004 International DECA Career Development Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee; and

Whereas, one of seventeen high school students to receive international recognition, Wendy Goldstein put forth a tremendous degree of effort while competing with sixteen thousand of the best and brightest high school marketing students from across the United States and Canada; and

Whereas, DECA's internationally recognized program of competitive events uses interviews, tests, role-plays, and written project reports to evaluate marketing and management skills identified by the nation's business community as essential for success in the business world of today; and

Whereas, an outstanding student at Parkway Central High School in Chesterfield where she has been named a DECA Third Place State Winner in Apparel and Accessories Management Level Event, Wendy Goldstein received First Place in International DECA Competition in the Apparel and Accessories Management Level Event; and

Whereas, Wendy Goldstein holds local, state, and international DECA membership and takes pride in the enviable list of achievements she has acquired at Parkway Central High School as President of Parkway Central DECA, Theatre President, and Improvisation Captain; and

Whereas, Wendy Goldstein has achieved her every ambition with the love, support, and encouragement she has continually received from her proud and loving parents Daniel and Sheila Goldstein, and her siblings, Thomas, Jennifer and Caroline:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join together with the staff and student body at Parkway Central High School in extending our most hearty congratulations to Wendy Goldstein at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Wendy Goldstein, as she is honored on May 14, 2004, at the Missouri Governor's Mansion in Jefferson City.
