

House Resolution No. 3227

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have made admirable contributions to public education through their efforts to ensure that students are provided learning environments which are challenging, rewarding, and productive in preparation for roles as lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Howard Prost has attained considerable distinction as an English teacher at Park Hill High School in the Park Hill School District, a professional pursuit which he will draw to a close at the conclusion of the 2003-2004 school year after twenty-five years of service; and

Whereas, Howard Prost enhanced his impressive record of accomplishment when he proved his flexibility and skills in teaching language arts, drama, and speech and debate courses; and

Whereas, Howard Prost prepared for success in his chosen field of endeavor by studiously applying himself to a course of action which resulted in his earning a Bachelor's degree in education from Northwest Missouri State University; and

Whereas, justifiably proud of his activities in the creation of the FBP community theater, Howard Prost in retirement will focus his energies on running the theater full-time after seventeen years of part-time labors; and

Whereas, the Park Hill School District educates more than ninety-five hundred students through the skills, knowledge, and dedication of more than seven hundred certificated staff at ten elementary, three middle, and two high school locations:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive career engaged in by Howard Prost for twenty-five years and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes as he partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Howard Prost, as an expression of our esteem for him and his achievements thus far in life.
