

House Resolution No. 3302

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educational leaders who have ensured that students are provided with learning environments that are challenging, rewarding, and productive means by which to prepare for roles as lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Tom Howard of Auxvasse has attained considerable distinction as Superintendent of the North Callaway County R-I School District, an MSIP Accredited entity which educates more than thirteen hundred students through the skilled resources of nearly one hundred fifty certified staff in three elementary and one high school facilities; and

Whereas, Tom Howard will bring his fifteen years as Superintendent of North Callaway schools to a close on June 30, 2004, in retirement; and

Whereas, Tom Howard brought to the office of North Callaway Superintendent a wealth of knowledge and experience which he had garnered from earlier employment as a teacher at Crawford R-I, Bourbon, and Pike County R-III schools, a principal at Osage County R-I, and the superintendent of the North Andrew R-VI School District; and

Whereas, in addition to his North Callaway school endeavors, Tom Howard developed and maintained an exemplary reputation for his efforts with the Missouri Association of Rural Education and its Executive Committee, National Rural Education Association, Northeast Administrators Group, East Central Missouri Superintendents Association, American Association of School Administrators, Auxvasse Lions Club, Commissioners Advisory Committee, and Missouri Association of School Administrators; and

Whereas, Tom Howard is a valued member of Saint Brendan's Catholic Church where he is universally praised as the beloved husband of Jean and loving father of Elizabeth, Allison, and Lauren, all of whom are very proud of him:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive career of Tom Howard and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes as he partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Tom Howard of Auxvasse, Missouri.
