Whereas, joined in marriage before the eyes of the Lord on April 19, 1954, Lawrence Probstfield and Geneva Bacher began their lives together as husband and wife after a memorable wedding ceremony officiated by Edgar Probstfield at the Sacred Hearth Church in Verona; and

Whereas, a proud father and caring husband, Mr. Probstfield provided a safe and secure future for his loved ones through many years of employment as an Industrial Masonry Supervisor, while somehow finding the time and energy to become an expert fisherman and gardener; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker who has made the floral arrangement for the altar at her church for the last twenty years, Mrs. Probstfield enjoyed her family immensely and further distinguished herself a stellar employee of MWM Color Press, 4-H Leader for twenty-three years, President of the Tillers n' Toilers Garden Club, and member of various schools committees concerning Proposition C; and

Whereas, Lawrence and Geneva Probstfield attribute their fifty years of wedded success and happiness to their strong sense of faith and family, the foundation upon which they have planted the seeds of their love and respect for each other in the generations to come which include their two children, Rita Johnson and Randy Probstfield; and their three grandchildren, Hanna, Kelsey, and Jacob; and

Whereas, throughout their blissful union, Lawrence and Geneva Probstfield have remained devoted life partners and have put forth a tremendous amount of effort to ensure the sanctity of the vows they took so very long ago:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in a thunderous round of applause for Lawrence and Geneva Probstfield upon the glorious celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, and in wishing them tremendous peace and contentment as they proudly continue their journey along life's path; and
