

House Resolution No. 3319

Whereas, it is with tremendous pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their diverse daily endeavors in order to acknowledge Show-Me State business owners who have admirably contributed to the strength and vitality of local economic foundations in communities and neighborhoods throughout the state; and

Whereas, Jo Kampschmidt of Shelbina has attained considerable distinction as a highly successful woman small business owner who established the Chicken Coop Boutique eighteen years ago and moved its location to a downtown venue three years ago; and

Whereas, in the nearly two decades since its founding, the Chicken Coop Boutique gift shop has proven to be a well-liked community gathering spot where generations of area citizens have made, deepened, and renewed important friendships; and

Whereas, Jo Kampschmidt has used her understanding of the importance of family values to become a community volunteer and leader who embodies those very same characteristics in all of her activities; and

Whereas, Jo Kampschmidt has developed and maintained an exceptional reputation as a strong, enterprising woman who has successfully pursued her goals and ideals in a small farming community; and

Whereas, in addition to her entrepreneurial endeavors, Jo Kampschmidt has been actively involved in the greater Shelbina community through her teaching children's church and her membership in the 49ers Club; and

Whereas, Jo Kampschmidt is the beloved wife of Ray Kampschmidt, the loving mother of three children, the grandmother of nine, and the great-grandmother of two, all of whom support and encourage in their own ways her exceptionally positive involvement with the Shelbina community and its esteemed residents:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the entrepreneurial expertise of Joe Kampschmidt and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations for the success of her Chicken Coop Boutique gift shop business and our best wishes for many more years of continued personal and professional achievement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Jo Kampschmidt of Shelbina, Missouri.

Offered by Speaker Catherine L. Hanaway
District No. 87

I, Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 3319, adopted June 3, 2004.
