Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives wholeheartedly believe that a successful marriage forms a firm foundation for a lifetime of happiness and security and wish to salute an outstanding Missouri couple whose union confirms that philosophy; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Page, cherished residents of rural Wyaconda, Missouri, commemorated the resplendent occasion of their Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary on June 20, 2004, with a festive celebration at Clyde Foglesong's Farm; and

Whereas, joined in marriage on June 24, 1944, Fred Page and Ann Foglesong began their lives together as husband and wife after a memorable wedding ceremony in Luray; and

Whereas, since that happy day, Fred and Ann Page have witnessed with pleasure the growth of their mutual trust and understanding, qualities which continue to endear them to one another with each passing year; and

Whereas, former residents of Loveland, Colorado, who moved back to Missouri in 1985 following Ann's retirement from Hewlett-Packard, Fred and Ann Page attribute their sixty years of wedded success and happiness to their strong sense of faith and family, the foundation upon which they have planted the seeds of their love and respect for each other in the generations to come which include their two children, Bob Page of Florence and Jeannie Baugh of Loveland, Colorado; their daughter-in-law, Judy Page; and their four grandchildren; and

Whereas, throughout their blissful union, Fred and Ann Page have remained devoted life partners and have put forth a tremendous amount of effort to ensure the sanctity of the vows they took so very long ago:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in a thunderous round of applause for Fred and Ann Page upon the glorious celebration of their Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary, and in wishing them tremendous peace and contentment as they proudly continue their journey along life's path; and
