

House Resolution No. 4590

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives recognizes the significance of the institution of marriage as a vital foundation of American society and wholeheartedly believes that a successful union can be achieved only through a loving relationship of mutual honor, respect, and trust; and

Whereas, Brendon Jared Cox and Julie Lynn Reynolds were joined in Holy Matrimony by exchanging their sacred nuptial vows during a beautiful wedding ceremony officiated by Pastor Paul Bazalgette on June 21, 2003, at the First United Methodist Church in Blue Springs, Missouri; and

Whereas, after the exchange of their sacred nuptial vows, Brendon and Julie Cox proudly attended a reception at the Adams Pointe Conference Center in the Courtyard by Marriott of Blue Springs followed by a honeymoon in Maui and Oahu, Hawaii; and

Whereas, Brendon and Julie are entering this new chapter in their lives with hope and optimism for success that can surely be achieved through the strength of the love so deep in their hearts; and

Whereas, Brendon Cox graduated from Blue Springs High School in 1993, attended Blue River Community College for three years, and is currently employed by Meyer Laboratory; while Julie graduated from Blue Springs South High School in 1996, earned a degree in liberal arts at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, and is currently employed by the federal government; and

Whereas, Brendon and Julie's dream of becoming husband and wife received the blessings, love, and encouragement of their wedding party whose members included their parents, John and Deanna Reynolds and Ron and Kathy Cox of Blue Springs; the Matron of Honor, Jenny Reynolds, sister of the bride; the Bridesmaids, Andrea Dettmer, Kristina Steven, Angie Russell, and Shari Losch; the Best Man, Brian Steven; and the Groomsmen, Jacob Cox, D. Mack Fiene, Jason Hight, and Mark Kneyse:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Brendon and Julie Cox for having pledged their love to each other in the presence of God and man and in wishing them nothing but happiness, good health, and prosperity as husband and wife in the many years ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Brendon J. Cox.
