

House Resolution No. 4616

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize a Missouri family that has received countless blessings over the course of the past year; and

Whereas, the members of the Baile Crouse Family of Warrensburg, Missouri, recently celebrated the completion of their new home on October 27, 2003, with a very special dedication ceremony at their home in Warrensburg; and

Whereas, family, friends, and neighbors gathered to celebrate the completion of the house and to welcome the Baile Crouse Family to their new home; and

Whereas, the Baile Crouse Family home was constructed with the aide, assistance, and generosity of others who donated supplies, materials, and countless hours of labor to the building project; and

Whereas, the Baile Crouse Family wishes to thank all those dedicated individuals who made their new home a reality including Becky's parents, Jim and Wilma Baile, contractor Ty Owens, Jim Protiva, Ed Cardoza, Lucas Cardoza, First Community Bank, members of their church family, and co-workers from Baptist-Lutheran Hospital, Overland Park Regional, and Martin Warren Elementary School, all of whom are to be commended for their steadfast commitment and unwavering unanimity; and

Whereas, Jerry and Becky Baile Crouse look forward to spending the rest of their lives together in their new home, where they will enjoy making new memories with their three wonderful children, Steve, Jacob, and Christy:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to the members of the Baile Crouse Family at the completion of a new house which they now call "home", and in wishing them tremendous peace, prosperity, and contentment in the years that lie ahead; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Jerry and Becky Baile Crouse Family, as a mark of our esteem for them.
