

House Resolution No. 4801

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Judith Clark, an esteemed resident of St. Joseph, Missouri, who has been selected as the St. Joseph School District 2002-2003 Distinguished Principal of the Year; and

Whereas, Judith Clark currently serves as the Principal at Noyes Elementary School, where she is a favorite among teachers and students alike; and

Whereas, during her six year-career as Principal at Noyes Elementary School, Judith Clark has greatly enjoyed watching her students excel in their studies and grow to become successful and prosperous young adults; and

Whereas, Judith Clark has played an integral role in the educational development of countless Missouri youngsters as an educator for many years, teaching at Eugene Field Elementary School for nine years and Skaith Elementary School for three years prior to joining Noyes Elementary School; and

Whereas, Judith Clark was honored by her students and staff during a special assembly which included music and a skit performed by sixth grade students entitled "A Day in the Life of Ms. Clark"; and

Whereas, in her role as Principal of Noyes Elementary School, Judith Clark has willingly kissed a pig, taken a pie in the face, and sat in a dunk tank while showing her unwavering support for her students and the St. Joseph School District; and

Whereas, Judith Clark is now eligible to receive Missouri's National Distinguished Principal of the Year award, the recipient of which will be announced in March 2004:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Judith Clark at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for 2002-2003 Distinguished Principal of the Year, Judith Clark of St. Joseph, Missouri.
