

House Resolution No. 4826

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to recognize the meritorious endeavors of outstanding government employees, a task which this legislative body embraces with great enthusiasm; and

Whereas, David P. Disbrow, a resident of St. Charles, Missouri, will retire from his position as an Appeals Officer with the United States Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service, on January 2, 2004, after a thirty-year career in federal government; and

Whereas, during his impressive tenure with the United States government, Davis Disbrow has worked with the United States Army Audit, as a Revenue Agent in Exam, and in his current position as an Appeals Officer; and

Whereas, Davis Disbrow, a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, is known, admired, and respected for his helpful attitude, warm smile, and friendly manner with which he has always greeted people in and around the community, a unique quality that will be greatly missed by his many co-workers; and

Whereas, a 1971 graduate of Southeast Missouri State University who provides hospital ministry through his church, Davis Disbrow enjoys recognition as a valuable member of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church and the Knights of Columbus; and

Whereas, Davis Disbrow will undoubtedly look back over the past several decades and reminisce about his many worthwhile experiences and his special relationships with revered colleagues while basking in the glow of a successful career now at its end; and

Whereas, Davis Disbrow has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include his wife, Janet Disbrow, and three children, Laura Hartman, Scott Disbrow, and Jeff Disbrow:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in expressing deep gratitude for the superb service that Davis Disbrow has rendered to the Internal Revenue Service during the past thirty years and in wishing him ample opportunity to enjoy the better things life has to offer; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Davis P. Disbrow, as a measure of our esteem for him.
