

House Resolution No. 40

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have admirably committed an untold amount of time and energy to efforts which hold tremendous promise to enhance the quality of life in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Adolphus Busch, IV, has attained considerable distinction as a businessman, investor, and environmentalist who opposes development in flood plains; and

Whereas, founder of the Great Rivers Habitat Alliance, Adolphus Busch has taken on conservation disputes outside of Saint Peters, including the expansion of Smartt Field which is the Saint Charles County airport located on the flood plain north of the city of Saint Charles; and

Whereas, Adolphus Busch lives and raises polo ponies at nearby Belleau Farm and is an avid fisherman, duck hunter, and scuba diver; and

Whereas, Adolphus Busch was featured in the annual Making a Difference series of articles printed in December 2004 by the Saint Charles County Post:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar achievements garnered thus far in life by fifty-one-year-old Adolphus Busch and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Adolphus Busch, IV.

Offered by _____ Representative Joe Smith
District No. 14

I, Rod Jetton, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, First Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 40, adopted January 6, 2005.

_____
Rod Jetton, Speaker