

House Resolution No. 254

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize a remarkable Missouri citizen whose efforts and accomplishments have made her a source of inspiration for all those around her; and

Whereas, Vicki Digby has been chosen as a recipient of the Pillar of the Community Award, a most impressive accolade to be bestowed upon her by the Grain Valley Chamber of Commerce on January 29, 2005, at the Community Center; and

Whereas, Vicki Digby began her own business with a flower shop in Independence, since which time she has developed that business into MeraVic, an importer of silk flowers and home and Christmas decor for which she is the owner/operator; and

Whereas, the original MeraVic outgrew its facility in Blue Springs and the present Corporate Headquarters was built in Grain Valley; and

Whereas, Vicki Digby has jumped into the Grain Valley community with the Chamber of Commerce giving of her time and resources; and

Whereas, Vicki Digby is also a member of the Truman Heartland Foundation and the North Central local of Business and Professional Women; and

Whereas, Vicki Digby is a fair and generous employer of fifty people at the current MeraVic office/warehouse as well as an outside sales staff of twenty people; and

Whereas, Vicki Digby can take pride in knowing she has consistently given more than one hundred percent to all those Chamber activities in which she has so generously and enthusiastically participated:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Vicki Digby for her selection to receive the Grain Valley Chamber of Commerce Pillar of the Community Award, and in further wishing her continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Vicki Digby.
