

House Resolution No. 285

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives wholeheartedly believe that a successful marriage forms a firm foundation for a lifetime of happiness and security and wish to salute an outstanding Missouri couple whose union confirms that philosophy; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Kellogg, treasured residents of Blue Springs, Missouri, commemorated the resplendent occasion of their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary with a festive family celebration at the Outback Steakhouse restaurant; and

Whereas, joined in marriage before the eyes of the Lord on December 18, 1954, Ron Kellogg and Irene Kommrau began their lives together as husband and wife after a memorable wedding ceremony at St. Peter and St. Paul Catholic Church in Boonville; and

Whereas, a proud father and caring husband, Mr. Kellogg provided a safe and secure future for his loved ones through employment with the Missouri State Highway Patrol from 1961 to 1973 and the Jackson County Sheriff's Department from 1973 to 2003; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker, Mrs. Kellogg enjoyed her family immensely and further distinguished herself as a stellar employee of AT&T for thirty-five years and H&R Block for six years; and

Whereas, Ron and Irene Kellogg attribute their fifty years of wedded success and happiness to their strong sense of faith and family, the foundation upon which they have planted the seeds of their love and respect for each other in the generations to follow which include their daughter and son-in-law, Brenda and Tony Modrell; and their two grandchildren, Missy and Nick; and

Whereas, loving parents and grandparents who enjoy watching sports and spending time with their grandchildren, Ron and Irene Kellogg have remained devoted life partners and have put forth a tremendous amount of effort to ensure the sanctity of the vows they took so very long ago:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in a thunderous round of applause for Ron and Irene Kellogg upon the glorious celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, and in wishing them much peace and contentment as they proudly continue their journey along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Ron Kellogg.
