

House Resolution No. 329

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Daniel Richard Dahler of Troop 4 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on February 3, 2005, at Saint Peters School; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Daniel through the billets of Senior Patrol Leader, Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, Patrol Leader, Quartermaster, and Troop Guide; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Daniel earned him a Parvuli Dei religious award, induction into the Order of the Arrow, and twenty-one merit badges which are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge which he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Daniel applied the knowledge which he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities, including summer sessions at Camp Hohn and Camp Bartel; and

Whereas, Daniel completed an Eagle Project which consisted of drawing a map of the United States on the playground at Saint Peters Elementary School to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait which justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Daniel Dahler during his ten-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Daniel Richard Dahler, son of Keith and Carol Dahler of Jefferson City, Missouri.
