Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State teachers who have developed and maintained outstanding reputations for the excellence of their educational pursuits; and

Whereas, Mary Frances "Fran" Hagan has attained considerable distinction as a third-grade teacher in the Affton School District; and

Whereas, on Wednesday, February 16, 2005, Fran Hagan will enhance an already impressive record of achievements when she is publicly recognized in the state capitol by the Missouri NBPTS Network for National Board Certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards; and

Whereas, National Board Certification is a lengthy, rigorous assessment which can take up to three years to complete and which results in a less than forty percent success rate for first-time applicants; and

Whereas, to attain National Board Certification, Fran Hagan presented evidence of teaching effectiveness, including classroom video segments and analysis of teacher decisions and student work; examples of teaching practices which result in an accompanying increase in student learning; models of meaningful interaction with parents to impact student learning; documents supporting such appropriate teaching strategies as large and small group learning, use of effective questioning techniques, choice of materials that engage students, checking for understanding throughout the lesson and making adjustments, and properly evaluating student work for understanding to determine what and how to reteach; and timed assessments to prove superior levels of content knowledge; and

Whereas, part of the evaluative process which Fran Hagan underwent to earn National Board Certification included appraisal by a jury of qualified experts in states other than Missouri; and

Whereas, Fran Hagan is a member of American MENSA, the recipient of Channel Two "Class Act" teacher honors, a Saint Louis Teachers Academy Fellow, holder of an Emerson Electric Excellence in Teaching Award, Gotsch Intermediate School's First Teacher of the Year, and Affton School District's first National Board Certified Teacher:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the educational accomplishments garnered by teacher Fran Hagan down through the years and to convey this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon the completion of rigorous National Board Certification through the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards and our best wishes for continued success as a respected employee of the Affton School District; and
