

House Resolution No. 917

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize those individuals who have dedicated themselves to meeting the health-care needs of this state's residents; and

Whereas, Betty Goins of Westboro, Missouri, has been named the 2004 Employee of the Year by the Community Hospital Association; and

Whereas, Betty Goins has distinguished herself in the medical field as the Operating Room Nurse Manager at Community Hospital, where she has worked for the past forty-seven years; and

Whereas, Betty Goins is an outstanding employee who provides exceptional, sustained, compassionate, and direct patient care; and

Whereas, Betty Goins is highly regarded for the dynamic and innovative manner in which she conducts her day-to-day responsibilities at Community Hospital and for the proficient, conscientious, and friendly manner in which she tends to the needs of its patrons; and

Whereas, Betty Goins is an extraordinary individual who has chosen to follow her dream and embrace a worthwhile vocational calling which has provided a means to express her deep sense of community and compassion for fellow Missourians:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Betty Goins for being named 2004 Employee of the Year and in commending her for the caring, compassionate, and competent manner in which she has met her responsibilities to so many patients over the years; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Betty Goins.
