

House Resolution No. 836

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who have admirably demonstrated their true potential as future societal leaders through the excellence of their achievements thus far in life; and

Whereas, Katie Holt of Jefferson City has attained considerable distinction as a student at Thomas Jefferson Middle School; and

Whereas, Katie Holt enhanced her already impressive record of accomplishments when she attended the Junior National Young Leaders Conference in Washington D.C. from February 26 to March 3, 2005; and

Whereas, sponsored by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, the Junior National Young Leaders Conference in 2005 was themed “The Legacy of American Leadership” and introduced young people to the rich tradition of leadership throughout American history, especially the periods of the Civil War and Reconstruction, the Great Depression, World War II, and the Civil Rights Movement; and

Whereas, in addition to learning about various topics in American history, Katie Holt and the other participants in the Junior National Young Leaders Conference engaged in developing their own leadership skills and in visiting such national landmarks as Colonial Williamsburg; and

Whereas, Katie Holt attended educational activities and presentations by individuals in high-level governmental and societal positions as well as young people who exercise leadership skills within their own communities; and

Whereas, the Congressional Youth Leadership Council is a nonprofit, nonpartisan educational organization which was founded in 1985 to foster and inspire young people to achieve their full leadership potential:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the participation of Katie Holt in the Junior National Young Leaders Conference and to convey to her this legislative body’s heartiest best wishes for continued personal success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Katie Holt of Jefferson City, Missouri.
