

House Resolution No. 1429

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed by exceptionally long and productive lives; and

Whereas, born on March 12, 1915, in Schuyler County into the family of Robert and Zella Moore, Pauline Jackson recently celebrated her Ninetieth Birthday with a gathering of family members and friends on that same date in 2005 at her daughter's home in Kahoka; and

Whereas, after an enjoyable childhood filled with all types of educational and rewarding activities, the former Pauline Moore established a family of her own through her joyful marriage to Raymon Jackson who loved and cherished her with all of his heart; and

Whereas, the marital union of Pauline and Raymon Jackson was blessed with wonderful children, Robert Jackson and Patty Winn; grandchildren, Bambi Boysen, Angela Smith, and Amy Getz; and six great-grandchildren; and

Whereas, a member of First Christian Church in Memphis, Pauline Jackson cooked at the local sale barn for seventeen years; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Pauline Jackson enjoys a life which encompassed most of the twentieth century with its first flights by heavier-than-air craft, worldwide turmoil associated with World War I and World War II, rise of the automobile as America's preferred mode of travel, demise of the Soviet Union as the Cold War drew to a close, and shift from a primarily agricultural economy to one dependent upon industry and then upon the service and information sectors; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses to commemorate momentous events in the lives of such stellar citizens as Pauline Jackson:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the joyous arrival of the Ninetieth Birthday of Pauline Jackson and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon attaining such a rare milestone in life and our best wishes for many more celebratory events in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Pauline Jackson of Memphis, Missouri.
