

House Resolution No. 1836

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives wholeheartedly believe that a successful marriage forms a firm foundation for a lifetime of happiness and security and wish to salute an outstanding Missouri couple whose union confirms that philosophy; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Loveless, Jr., treasured residents of Cabool, Missouri, commemorated the resplendent occasion of their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary on March 27, 2005, with a festive celebration held at Hayloft Restaurant in Mountain Grove; and

Whereas, joined in marriage before the eyes of the Lord on March 27, 1955, Elmer Loveless, Jr., and Sarah Lou Cheney began their lives together as husband and wife after a memorable wedding ceremony in Wynne, Arkansas; and

Whereas, since that happy day, Elmer and Sarah Loveless have witnessed with pleasure the growth of their mutual trust and understanding, qualities which continue to endear them to one another with each passing year; and

Whereas, a proud father, caring husband, and full-time cowboy whose hobbies include music and membership in the Missouri Foxtrotters Association and the National Rifle Association, Mr. Loveless provided a safe and secure future for his loved ones through many years of tireless endeavor as a diesel mechanic, while Mrs. Loveless enjoyed her family immensely and further distinguished herself as a stellar employee of Fordick Corp. for three years, gardener, and community volunteer; and

Whereas, Elmer and Sarah Loveless attribute their fifty years of wedded success and happiness to their strong sense of faith and family, the foundation upon which they have planted the seeds of their love and respect for each other in the generations to follow which include their ten children, Gene, Betty, Glenda, Lois, Linda, Larry, Lora, Margaret, Gary, and Janet; and their thirty-eight grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild; and

Whereas, throughout their blissful union, Elmer and Sarah Loveless have remained devoted life partners and have put forth a tremendous amount of effort to ensure the sanctity of the vows they took so very long ago:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in a thunderous round of applause for Elmer and Sarah Loveless upon the glorious celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, and in wishing them much peace and contentment as they proudly continue their journey along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Loveless, Jr.
