

House Resolution No. 2084

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State youths who have admirably demonstrated their potential as lifelong learners and future societal leaders through the excellence of their accomplishments as students; and

Whereas, Josh Hosmer-Quint has attained considerable distinction as a student at West Junior High School in Columbia, Missouri; and

Whereas, Josh Hosmer-Quint recently enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he earned an Honorable Mention in Level II of the 2005 Letters About Literature essay contest sponsored by the Missouri Center for the Book, Missouri State Library, Library of Congress, and Target Stores; and

Whereas, the entry by Josh Hosmer-Quint consisted of a letter to author Brian Jacques which explained how Redwall changed his view of the world or of himself as a person; and

Whereas, challenged by the Letters About Literature essay contest to explore his personal response to a book, Josh Hosmer-Quint then successfully expressed those responses in a creative, original way; and

Whereas, Josh Hosmer-Quint and eleven other Letters About Literature winners from across the state will receive well-deserved public recognition on Wednesday, April 13, 2005, in the Missouri state capitol rotunda in centrally located Jefferson City; and

Whereas, part of the public recognition ceremony will be the reading of winning letters by their young authors; and

Whereas, each of the twelve young award-winning letter writers also will receive a Certificate and a cash prize in light of their outstanding accomplishment:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the achievements garnered thus far in life by Josh Hosmer-Quint and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon taking an Honorable Mention in the 2005 Letters About Literature essay contest and our sincerest best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Josh Hosmer-Quint, son of Andy Quint and Ellen Hosmer of Columbia, Missouri.
