

House Resolution No. 2060

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have admirably helped local governments provide much-needed services and programs in the efficient, effective manner mandated by the public; and

Whereas, Illah Marie Pulley of Amity, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as the DeKalb County Treasurer and Ex-Officio Collector, a leadership and service position which she brought to a close on March 31, 2005, after twenty-four years of service; and

Whereas, Illah Pulley brought to her professional endeavors as DeKalb County Treasurer and Ex-Officio Collector a wealth of knowledge and experience which she had garnered earlier during employment in Saint Joseph with Eshelman Music for three years, as executive secretary for the American Angus Association for thirteen years, and as executive secretary for Gray Manufacturing Company for twelve years; and

Whereas, a Certified Professional Secretary, Illah Pulley attended night school at Missouri Western State College to earn a degree in accounting and also has earned a Real Estate License; and

Whereas, a volunteer at Heartland Hospital in Saint Joseph and a Committeewoman for Sherman Township, Illah Pulley is an esteemed member of the Cattlewomen's Association, Pork Producers Association, Extension Council, Lamplighters Club, MoKan Regional Council, DeKalb County Historical Society, Sunlight Chapter 247 of the Order of the Eastern Star, and Democrat Club; and

Whereas, Illah Pulley enjoys flower and vegetable gardening, attending antique sales, participating in Clarksdale Christian Church activities with her husband, and working one day each week for the Historical Society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the career accomplishments garnered down through the years by Illah Pulley as the DeKalb County Treasurer and Ex-Officio Collector and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Illah Marie Pulley of Amity, Missouri.
