Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State youths who have admirably demonstrated their potential as lifelong learners and future societal leaders through the excellence of their accomplishments as students; and

Whereas, Lauren Croll has attained considerable distinction as a student at Smithton Middle School in Columbia; and

Whereas, Lauren Croll recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she earned First Place in Level II of the 2005 Letters About Literature essay contest sponsored by the Missouri Center for the Book, Missouri State Library, Library of Congress, and Target Stores; and

Whereas, the entry by Lauren Croll consisted of a letter to author Terry Macmillan which explained how Mama changed her view of the world or of herself as a person; and

Whereas, challenged by the Letters About Literature essay contest to explore her personal response to a book, Lauren Croll then successfully expressed those responses in a creative, original way; and

Whereas, Lauren Croll and eleven other Letters About Literature winners from across the state will receive well-deserved public recognition on Wednesday, April 13, 2005, in the Missouri state capitol rotunda in centrally located Jefferson City; and

Whereas, part of the public recognition ceremony will be the reading of winning letters by their young authors; and

Whereas, each of the twelve young award-winning letter writers also will receive a Certificate and a cash prize in light of their outstanding accomplishment:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the achievements garnered thus far in life by Lauren Croll and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon taking First Place in the 2005 Letters About Literature essay contest and our sincerest best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and
