

House Resolution No. 2169

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are delighted to honor an outstanding Missourian who has witnessed dramatic changes in America during her sojourn on this most precious earth; and

Whereas, Jessie Mavity of Tarkio, Missouri, will commemorate the resplendent occasion of her One Hundredth Birthday on April 30, 2005; and

Whereas, on April 30, 1905, in rural Tarkio, God brought one of eight special gifts to James Lewis and Ida Jane Lyons Mather with the birth of an adorable infant by the name of Jessie May, who would put a twinkle in their eyes and fill their hearts with love and joy; and

Whereas, while celebrating her birthday, Jessie Mavity will have the opportunity to reminisce about some of the significant events in her life such as being married in September 1925 to James Henry Frohn (deceased), finding love a second time when she wed William Mavity (deceased) in October 1982, and raising her children; and

Whereas, God has blessed Jessie Mavity with the love and affection of a wonderful family whose members include her children, Marilyn Frohn Graves, Jackie Frohn Uptergrove, Carolyn Frohn Doleshal, and Gary Frohn; seven grandchildren, Nicci Wheeler, Dawn Myers, Sheila Graves, Jim Doleshal, Rob Doleshal, Bryan Frohn, and Jason Frohn; and five great-grandchildren, Dustin and Kellen Myers, Cody Doleshal, and McKenzie and Cody Frohn; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker, Jessie Mavity has further distinguished herself by working in the cafeteria at Fairfax High School and Fairfax Community Hospital, serving as a 4-H Leader, and being an active and founding member of the BZN Neighborhood Club, the Extension Club, and the Fairfax High School Band's Mother's Club; and

Whereas, at the respectable age of 100, Jessie Mavity is extremely grateful for the countless blessings she has received throughout the course of her long and eventful life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations and special birthday greetings to Jessie Mavity at this significant milestone and in wishing her peace and contentment as she continues to enjoy her golden years; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Missouri centenarian Jessie Mavity, as a measure of our esteem for her.
