

House Resolution No. 2902

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives proudly pause to recognize those special young people who have exemplified the finest qualities of citizenship and leadership by taking an active part in state government; and

Whereas, Crystal Story, a student at Lincoln University, has distinguished herself as a Legislative Intern for the Honorable Robin Wright-Jones, State Representative from the 63rd District; and

Whereas, Crystal Story joined Representative Wright-Jones for the First Regular Session of the Ninety-third General Assembly as part of the Missouri State Intern Program at the State Capitol in Jefferson City, a program designed to involve college students in the legislative process through active participation; and

Whereas, Crystal Story has experienced the opportunity to observe firsthand the inner workings of state government and has gained valuable insight into the process by which laws are made; and

Whereas, a reliable and conscientious young woman, Crystal Story has successfully demonstrated her abilities in the performance of such duties as conducting research, serving as a legislative assistant and session attendant, helping with constituent services, and assuming various other responsibilities to make the office of Representative Jones run as smoothly and efficiently as possible; and

Whereas, a graduate of Normandy High School, Crystal Story is an exemplary student at Lincoln University where she is majoring in Criminal Justice; and

Whereas, Crystal Story has achieved all of this and more with the love and support of her proud parents, siblings, teachers, and friends, all of whom have continually instilled within her the desire to realize her full potential:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in commending Crystal Story for her many important contributions to the Missouri State Legislature during the current legislative session; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Crystal Story, as a mark of our esteem for her.
