

House Resolution No. 2670

Whereas, it is with tremendous respect and pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives acknowledge milestone events in the histories of outstanding organizations that strive for the advancement of business and professional women on the local, state, and national level; and

Whereas, the Missouri Federation of Business and Professional Women will host its Eighty-fourth annual conference using the theme “Together We Can” on April 29, 2005; and

Whereas, the leading advocate of working women, BPW/MO is part of the Missouri Women’s Network and will honor all active members, the past national President, the current BPW/USA Foundation Chair, especially National Representative Pat Cornish, as well as past and present Board of Directors; and

Whereas, last year, BPW/MO was recognized at the national level for organizing four new local chapters, including two at Southwest Missouri State and Northwest Missouri State; and

Whereas, the annual conference gives BPW/MO, local organizations, and the business community as a whole an opportunity to acknowledge the accomplishments of working women and to showcase the organization; and

Whereas, local BPW organizations can use the conference to honor outstanding professional women and plan activities to meet the needs of their individual communities; and

Whereas, founded in St. Louis in 1919, the National Federation of Business and Professional Women’s Clubs promotes full participation and equity for women in the workplace; publicizes the achievements of business and professional women on the local, state, and national level; and publicizes the objectives and programs of BPW/USA as they relate to the millions of business and professional women across the country:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the Eighty-fourth Annual Conference of Missouri Federation of Business and Professional Women and to convey this legislative body’s heartiest congratulations and best wishes for its continued success; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Missouri Federation of Business and Professional Women.
