

House Resolution No. 3077

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has brought great commitment and steadfast dedication to the teaching profession; and

Whereas, Cathy L. King, an esteemed resident of Raymore, Missouri, will officially retire from the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District in May of 2005, after a rewarding career in education that has spanned an incredible thirty years; and

Whereas, Cathy King has played an integral role in the educational development of several Missouri youngsters as a teacher at Peculiar Elementary School, during which time she taught remedial math and second, third, fifth, and sixth grades; and

Whereas, the 2003 Teacher of the Year, Cathy King is exceedingly proud of her affiliation with such important organizations as the National Education Association; and

Whereas, Cathy King looks forward to her much-deserved retirement so that she can spend more quality time sewing, reading, decorating, and enjoying family and friends; and

Whereas, a devout member of Aldersgate United Methodist Church, Cathy King has been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of a wonderful family whose members include her devoted husband, Sam; and her two children, Blake and Lauren:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our utmost appreciation to Cathy King for her thirty years of unparalleled service to the Raymore-Peculiar R-II School District and to the teaching profession; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Cathy L. King.
