

House Resolution No. 3107

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take great pleasure in applauding the achievements and triumphs that have so proudly enriched the lives of remarkable young Missourians; and

Whereas, Sherita Henderson, a student at Bailey Alternative High School in Springfield, Missouri, has been chosen to receive a 2005 Lieutenant Governor's Service Award as part of the Missouri Learn and Serve America program; and

Whereas, Sherita Henderson has participated in a wide variety of Service-Learning programs throughout her high school career and is dedicated to seeking out ways to help her peers, young children, those with special needs, and adults alike; and

Whereas, known as courteous, respectful, and a role model for other students, Sherita Henderson is an outstanding student who has always given more than one hundred percent to every task she has encountered; and

Whereas, Sherita Henderson has enjoyed recognition by serving as Director for the etc. Center (a student run supplementary materials recycling program for teacher), and as Chair of Bailey's Service-Learning Advisory Council, of which she is past Vice Chair; and

Whereas, Sherita Henderson understands the importance of not only caring for her community, but also to use those opportunities as ways to increase personal growth, civic responsibility, and learning; and

Whereas, a few of Sherita Henderson's projects include tutoring third graders in reading, helping with an Empty Bowls Luncheon to raise money for a hunger organization, and working with a student run recycling program; and

Whereas, Sherita Henderson is also to be commended for working toward the establishment of an alumni service-learning group for Bailey Alternative High School:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Sherita Henderson at this well-deserved moment of distinction and in wishing her only the best in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Sherita Henderson, as a measure of our esteem for her.
