

House Resolution No. 3744

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take great pride in acknowledging a momentous milestone in the history of a blessed religious institution that has come to play an important role in the lives of many St. Louis County residents; and

Whereas, the Greater Pentecostal Church of God in St. Louis, Missouri, commemorated the resplendent occasion of the rededication of its sanctuary during a special celebration held June 13, 2004; and

Whereas, the Reverend Terence E. Coleman, Pastor of the Greater Pentecostal Church of God, had a vision to renovate the church and spearheaded the "Beautify My House" beautification project; and

Whereas, the sanctuary of the Greater Pentecostal Church of God stood in dire need of new carpet and church pews, and a Beautification Project Committee was appointed to assist with the great undertaking of the remodel; and

Whereas, from the vision's conception to its fruition, Pastor Coleman, Sister Sheila Coleman, and members of the Beautification Project Committee spent many long hours developing, organizing, and implementing project strategies from carpet colors and styles to budget and acquisition; and

Whereas, the completion of the beautification project at the Greater Pentecostal Church of God is proof that with the help of the Lord, all things are possible:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Pastor Coleman and to the entire congregation of the Greater Pentecostal Church of God at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing them only the very best as they continue to serve the Christian mission; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Pastor Terence E. Coleman and the Greater Pentecostal Church of God in St. Louis, Missouri.
