

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have dedicated their time and energy to helping their young charges obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Sharon Stadler of Kansas City has attained considerable distinction as a teacher in the Grandview C-4 School District which provides educational opportunities to more than forty-two hundred students through the expertise of nearly four hundred certificated staff in nine separate facilities; and

Whereas, a mathematics teacher at Grandview Junior High School and Grandview High School, Sharon Stadler will soon draw her duties and responsibilities to a close in well-deserved retirement; and

Whereas, Sharon Stadler has been an educator for twenty-six years, twenty-five of which have been with the Grandview C-4 School District; and

Whereas, Sharon Stadler has helped ensure the highest standards of performance and conduct in her chosen field of endeavor through her membership with the Missouri NEA PAC, service on the Missouri NEA PAC Executive Council since her election in 1996, and service on the Grandview 10 negotiating team; and

Whereas, a devoted teacher, Sharon Stadler has been universally praised for her selfless willingness to work with students who need extra assistance with mathematics; and

Whereas, Sharon Stadler is the mother of two Grandview High School alumni, a son, Doug, who is an architect in Washington, D.C., and a daughter, Allison, who is a social worker in the Kansas City area:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive career enjoyed by Sharon Stadler as a teacher with the Grandview C-4 School District and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Sharon Stadler of Kansas City, Missouri.
