

House Resolution No. 3779

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Stephen Mastin, an esteemed resident of Ballwin, Missouri, who is to be commended for excellence in business entrepreneurship, accounting, and finance; and

Whereas, Stephen Mastin currently serves in the position of Controller, the highest line supervisory position in the financial division responsible for all financial reporting and record keeping functions and for the protection of the company's assets; and

Whereas, one of the nation's youngest Controllers, Stephen Mastin is responsible for the growth and fostering of income for his company in his role as the top finance executive; and

Whereas, Stephen Mastin has a proven track record of positive change and saves companies millions of dollars and helps retain high paying jobs in the State of Missouri through innovative financial solutions and insight; and

Whereas, as one of the youngest Controllers in the nation, Stephen Mastin has played an integral role in breaking the stereotype that all accountants are boring and in raising interest in the accounting profession for young people; and

Whereas, the son of Mary H. Mastin, Stephen Mastin is exceedingly proud of his affiliation with such important organizations as the St. Louis Area Young Republicans and the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Stephen Mastin at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Stephen Mastin.
