

House Resolution No. 3732

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge special events experienced by Show-Me State residents who have been blessed by exceptionally long and productive lives; and

Whereas, Cecil O. Quigley of Stover, Missouri, has attained the long-awaited status of Missouri Centenarian; and

Whereas, born on July 31, 1904, into the family of George and Ruth Quigley in Unionville, Cecil Quigley had four brothers, Julius, Russell, Forrest, and Norman; and

Whereas, after an enjoyable childhood filled with all types of educational and rewarding activities, Cecil Quigley established a family of his own through his joyful marriage in 1934 to Hester Popplewell who loved and cherished him with all of her heart until her death; and

Whereas, Cecil Quigley again found love through his move to Stover and subsequent marriage to Carline Hicken in 1960; and

Whereas, after the passing of his second wife, Cecil Quigley re-entered matrimony in 1990 when he took Loyetta Shireman as his wife with whom he now lives; and

Whereas, Cecil Quigley has been blessed with such wonderful children as Ann, Karen, and Richard; and

Whereas, a vibrant part of the twenty-first century, Cecil Quigley can look back on a full, productive life in which he served on the Stover town board, was elected as a Judge in 1972, and did tax preparation and bookkeeping for many individuals; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives pauses to commemorate momentous events in the lives of such stellar citizens as Cecil Quigley:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the joyous arrival of the One Hundredth Birthday of Cecil Quigley and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon attaining a rare milestone in life and our best wishes for many more celebratory events in the future; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Cecil Quigley of Stover, Missouri.
