

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to recognize the meritorious endeavors of outstanding Missourians, a task which this legislative body embraces with great enthusiasm; and

Whereas, Tresa McCallie will be the guest of honor at a special retirement reception to be held on June 12, 2005, at the Kirkwood Early Childhood Center in Oakland, Missouri; and

Whereas, Coordinator of the Kirkwood Parents as Teachers program, Tresa McCallie is an outstanding individual who has faithfully performed her important duties and responsibilities with the utmost professionalism, conscientiousness, and fairness; and

Whereas, Tresa McCallie is known, admired, and respected for her helpful attitude, warm smile, and friendly manner in which she has always greeted people in and around the community, a unique quality that will be greatly missed by her many co-workers in the Kirkwood School District; and

Whereas, Tresa McCallie has distinguished herself in many ways, one of which is by participating in the neuroscience pilot project in conjunction with Washington University that helped develop the neuroscience curriculum for the Parents as Teachers program; and

Whereas, Tresa McCallie has also enjoyed recognition by being an integral part of the vision, the planning, and the completion of the new Kirkwood Early Childhood Center that opened three years ago; and

Whereas, Tresa McCallie will undoubtedly look back over the past two decades and reminisce about her many worthwhile experiences and her special relationships with revered colleagues while basking in the glow of a successful career now at its end:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in expressing deep gratitude for the superb service that Tresa McCallie has rendered to the Kirkwood Parents as Teachers program during the past twenty years and in wishing her ample opportunity to enjoy the better things life has to offer; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Tresa McCallie.
