

House Resolution No. 4069

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, Michael Scott Stagg of Troop 725 in St. Louis, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held September 19, 2004, at St. Dominic Savio Catholic Church; and

Whereas, Michael Stagg earned the praise and respect of many for the enthusiasm and initiative he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project, which involved the construction of a stone firepit for St. Dominic Savio Catholic Church; and

Whereas, during his ten years in the Scouting program, Michael Stagg earned an impressive twenty-eight merit badges, received the Ad Altare Dei and Pope Pius XII religious awards, attained membership in the Order of the Arrow, and participated in five years of summer camp and camporees, Junior Leader Training Camp, Ranger Camp, and a High Adventure trip to Philmont Scout Ranch in Cimarron, New Mexico; and

Whereas, Michael Stagg has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Senior Patrol Leader, Librarian, and First Vice-Chief of the Order of the Arrow Chapter; and

Whereas, a junior at Bishop DuBourg High School who attended the Missouri Scholars Academy in 2004, Michael Stagg has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Robert and Claudia Stagg of St. Louis:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Michael Stagg at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Michael Scott Stagg.
