

House Resolution No. 3930

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State senior citizens who bring glory and honor to themselves and to this great state through the excellence of their achievement in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Lillian Jones of Hannibal has attained considerable distinction as an advertising sales specialist with the Hannibal Courier-Post; and

Whereas, Lillian Jones recently enhanced her already impressive record of accomplishments when she was selected as a Third Place Regional Winner in the Fifteenth Annual Missouri Older Worker competition sponsored by the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services; and

Whereas, Lillian Jones was publicly lauded at a reception on Monday, May 16, 2005, in Paris, Missouri, along with additional winners in the regional event; and

Whereas, at the age of seventy-seven, Lillian Jones now works twenty to twenty-five hours per week; and

Whereas, employed by the Hannibal Courier-Post for approximately fifteen years, Lillian Jones is universally praised for her desire and ability to remain current with new advertising media, especially web-based technologies; and

Whereas, Lillian Jones sells inside and outside accounts and is singlehandedly responsible for selling the Martin Luther King, Jr., Edition and the Black History Section of the Hannibal Courier-Post each year; and

Whereas, Lillian Jones has proven down through the years to be indispensable in meeting the newspaper's monthly and yearly financial goals:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Lillian Jones as a Regional Winner in the 2005 Missouri Older Worker of the Year contest and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Lillian Jones of Hannibal, Missouri.
