

House Resolution No. 4463

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have proven to be excellent citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Joe Galli of Saint Louis has attained considerable distinction as a member of Teamsters Local 688, an organization which he has served as grievance committee member, shop steward, shop secretary, chief steward, business representative, delegate, trustee, recording secretary, vice president, president, and secretary-treasurer; and

Whereas, on November 30, 2004, Joe Galli will bring his illustrious association with Teamsters Local 688 to an end in well-deserved retirement after fifty-four years of service; and

Whereas, first employed by Brown Shoe, Joe Galli has been a leader in building member involvement, improving member communication, strengthening the political action program, expanding member education opportunities, and protecting health care access; and

Whereas, Joe Galli has remained committed to the labor movement as a way to improve the lives of members on the job and in the community; and

Whereas, Joe Galli also deserves mention of his important role as a family man whose wife of many years is the former Donna Steininger of Chesterfield:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive career of Joe Galli with Teamsters Local 688 and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations and our sincerest best wishes as he partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Joe Galli of Saint Louis, Missouri.
