

House Resolution No. 4633

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives recognize the significance of the institution of marriage as a vital foundation of American society and wholeheartedly believe that a successful union can be achieved only through a loving relationship of mutual honor, respect, and trust; and

Whereas, a period of five wondrous decades has passed since Howard Edwards Scott lovingly took the hand of his beautiful bride, Charlotte Ann Winkler, during a solemn ceremony officiated by the Reverend Cornn and witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Marion Winker, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, on November 18, 1954, in Moberly, Missouri; and

Whereas, in the years since that heavenly day, Howard and Charlotte Scott have had the pleasure of watching their family grow to include two children, Sharon Sagaser and her husband, Sam, of New Cambria and Steve Scott of Moberly; three grandsons and one granddaughter-in-law, Jason and Christa Riley of Indiana, Joshua Riley of Macon, and Kyle Scott of Moberly; and four great-grandchildren, Makayla Riley of Platte City and Kaytlin Riley, Kaleb Riley, and Karadyn Riley of Indiana; and

Whereas, Howard Scott has compiled an impressive record of achievement that includes working at a correctional center for twenty-three years and as an auto body vocational teacher until his retirement in 1996; serving as Mayor of Jacksonville for four years; and being the recipient of the Jacksonville-Cairo Citizenship Award in 1996; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and exemplary homemaker, Charlotte Scott has further distinguished herself by being an employee of the United States Postal Service for fourteen years, a Jacksonville Cancer Drive Collector, and Captain of Jacksonville Days; and

Whereas, during their half century together, Howard and Charlotte Scott have enjoyed many hobbies and pastimes some of which include metal detecting, treasure hunting, fishing, hunting, and traveling; and

Whereas, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, residents of Jacksonville, Missouri, commemorated the resplendent occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary with a special celebration on November 27, 2004, at the First Christian Church in Moberly:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Howard and Charlotte Scott and in wishing them only the best as they continue their journey walking hand-in-hand along life's path; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards Scott.
