

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in order to acknowledge the admirable endeavors of remarkable Show-Me State individuals; and

Whereas, Jane Christen of Rock Port, Missouri, was honored on November 4, 2004, at the Rock Port Senior Center in recognition of her volunteer service, an endeavor from which he is now retired following more than twenty-four years of service; and

Whereas, during the festive celebration, Jane Christen was presented with a certificate of appreciation and a dozen yellow roses from the Administrator and it was announced by the Board President that an Honored Volunteer plaque will be placed on the Wall of Angels at the Rock Port Senior Center; and

Whereas, throughout her impressive tenure at the Rock Port Senior Center, Jane Christen distinguished herself by delivering meals once a week on a continuous bases; and

Whereas, Jane Christen missed very few weeks of delivering meals in sunshine, rain, snow, and every other kind of weather; and

Whereas, before the Rock Port Senior Center was built, Jane Christen delivered meals when they were brought from Tarkio for home delivery; and

Whereas, Jane Christen also served on the Board in the early years of the center, helped prepare meals when the cook was on vacation, and performed a host of other volunteer activities; and

Whereas, it is entirely fitting and proper that this legislative body should pay tribute to Jane Christen, a remarkable individual whose quarter century of volunteer service will always be appreciated by all those involved with the Rock Port Senior Center:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in expressing our utmost appreciation to Jane Christen for the enviable list of service she has rendered to the Rock Port Senior Center and in wishing her continued success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution Jane Christen, as a measure of our esteem for her.
